Please write an essay addressing the following items:

1. What is calling you to this program at this time?
2. What are you most hoping to receive from participation in this program?
3. What is your occupation and how do you hope or vision that this program will support your work in the world?
4. Briefly discuss your spiritual orientation.
5. How would you define “helping” or “mentoring”? What do these terms mean to you at the onset of this journey?
6. What is your history of mental health counseling, psychotherapy and/or psychiatric care? Have you ever been hospitalized for treatment of a mental health disorder? Please be specific with dates, length of care, diagnosis and the critical issues explored.
7. Are you currently receiving mental health counseling, psychotherapy or psychiatric care? If so, please provide the name of your healthcare professional and discuss length and history of care and issues you are exploring.
8. What alternative forms of healing have you explored and/or are currently exploring? Hypnosis, shamanic journeying, past-life regression, Rolfing, Reiki, 12—Step addictions programs, therapeutic massage, etc. What has been/is your experience with these healing forms?
9. What specifically do you anticipate drawing from your own therapeutic and healing journey that will help you in mentoring others?
